the market from the water. We continue to Lao Tuk Luck Market the Old Damnoen Saduak Market located just over a local bridge. This attractive market is where you will see the old style and traditional way of selling and buying fruits and vegetables. The market is over 100 years old and has not changed at all, while the traditional Thai style houses will bring you back to past history. This afternoon, we arrive back in Bangkok to visit the famous cultural sites of the city, including the magnificent Grand Palace complex, Wat Phra Kaew, home to the Emerald Buddha and Wat Pho, one of the city's oldest Temples. We then hop onto a traditional longtail boat to meander through the quaint canals and see the spectacular Wat Arun, towering 79 metres over the Chao Phraya River, offering panoramic views across Bangkok from the Thonburi side. (B, L, D)

Day 3: Bangkok – Ayutthaya – Bangkok

Today, we discover the historical highlights of the Ancient Capital of Thailand, Ayutthaya. We depart in the morning, to reach Bang Pa-In Palace, boasting a mix of European, Gothic and Thai-Buddhist architecture. There will be time to explore the vast grounds that include several Temple complexes, a Watch Tower and a tranquil Lake. We then take a short trip to Wat Yai Chai Mongkol before we visit Wat Phra Sri Sanphet, a Temple that forbids Monks to enter due to its 'Royal' status and finally Wat Mahathat, a highly sacred Temple famous for its Lord Buddha relics and traditional style. What seems to be the most prominent landmark of the Temple is the head of a sandstone Buddha image entwined in the roots of a Bodhi Tree. Enjoy lunch in a riverside restaurant before more cultural action in the afternoon by cruising along the river to see the ruins. We return to Bangkok late afternoon. There is an optional Bangkok Street Eats by Tuk-Tuk tonight. (B, L)

Day 4: Bangkok – Chiang Mai

Day 1: Arrive Krabi

Upon arrival at Krabi Airport, you will be met and transferred to your hotel. The remainder of the day is free at leisure.

Day 2: Krabi – Koh Klang Culture Tour

Today, embark with us on a journey back in time. On this unique tour, you will discover local island life as it used to be decades ago, before Krabi was discovered by tourism. In the very early morning we will go to the local market in Krabi town where the farmers sell their fresh produce. We will take a short walk through the Old Town of Krabi and on our way to the Krabi River, we will visit a dim-sum breakfast shop where the local Sino-Thai population keeps the tradition of a morning yum-cha alive. The river and its mangroves have been the lifeline for Krabi for centuries for fishing, timber and protection from rough monsoon storms. They also offer shelter for many species of animals. If you're lucky, we will see some monkeys that populate the riverbanks. We will discover the mangrove river on our way to Koh Klang by Longtail Boat. Once on the Island, we will meet boat builders, rice farmers and batik artists living the traditional lifestyle. Lunch will be served on a floating restaurant in the mangroves. (B, L)

8 Days Krabi & Koh Yao Yai Beaches

Important: This is a plastic free excursion, no single use bottles are used on this tour.

Day 3: Krabi – Phi Phi Islands

After breakfast, we leave Krabi and mainland Thailand behind in search of the enormously popular Phi Phi Islands. This region around the Andaman Sea is well known for its fantastic snorkelling opportunities, crystal clear waters and an abundance of marine life. This morning takes you to Phi Phi Lay at Loh Sama Bay, a favoured spot by visitors for its good variety of coral and fish. The boat trip then heads on to the delightful Tong sai Bay for a traditional Thai lunch on the beach. This afternoon, we travel to the main island of Phi Phi Don, now home to a huge range of hotels, restaurants, shops and nightlife. There is free time to browse the lively town centre or just laze about in the sun on one of the nearby beaches. Back on the boat we start the journey back, stopping en route to check out the intimate beach at 'Bamboo Island' as well as the unusual Koh Khai, affectionately known as 'Chicken Island' thanks to its shape resembling a chicken's head standing in the middle of the sea. (B, L)

Day 4: Krabi – 4 Islands Trip

This morning, we depart from our hotel in Krabi and board a speedboat headed for an action packed tour of four islands. We visit Koh Tub and wade through the shallow waters at low tide. Discover the stunning limestone formations at Chicken Island and Railay Beach and stroll along the secluded sands of Pranang Bay. We enjoy a delicious lunch before returning to Krabi by speedboat in the afternoon. (B, L)

Day 5: Krabi – Koh Yao Yai

Itinerary

Day 1	Arrive Bangkok	Upon arrival in Bangkok, you will be transferred to your hotel. There will be a group meeting this evening and then time to experience the bright lights of the Thai Capital City.
Day 2	Bangkok	This morning, we cycle on the quiet back streets to avoid the traffic and discover the historic heart of the city. We stop at the famous Temple of Dawn with the largest bronze Buddha image in Thailand. At the heart of the city is the Chao Phraya River, the 'River of Kings' and a network of waterways. Here we will see humble wooden dwellings perched along the riverbank as well as Temples and Churches.
Day 3	Bangkok – Prachuap Khiri Khan	This morning, we transfer by vehicle to Prachuap Khiri Khan. This friendly town has a night market and a few bars.
Day 4	Prachuap Khiri Khan – Ban Krut	After we depart, we visit a lovely cove where we can stop for a dip in the sea. We then cycle through coconut and palm plantations to Ban Krut, a small beach town where you will find a cluster of restaurants and shops. Tonight, stroll along the endless sandy beach or relax looking out at a warm azure sea.
Day 5	Ban Krut – Ban Bang Burd	After breakfast, there is time to relax on the beach before setting off on a gentle ride along a beautiful coastal route. Tonight we will stay in the little fishing village of Ban Bang Burd.
Day 6	Ban Bang Burd – Thang Wu Laen	Today, we have a few climbs and descents as the road winds away from the coast. We cycle through pine forests, banana and rubber plantations and past sand dunes. We pass a large Temple with a mix of Buddhist and Hindu statues around it.
Day 7	Thang Wu Laen	After breakfast, today will be a well-deserved rest day. Relax on the long sandy beach or cycle to the town of Chumphon just 15 kms away.
Day 8	Thang Wu Laen – Paknam Takao	This morning, we continue south along the Gulf of Thailand following a path less travelled. Circumnavigating the Provincial Capital of Chumphon, we cycle towards Paknam Takao. Tonight's destination is a small Thai style resort where we will dine al fresco on the beach.
Day 9	Paknam Takao – Chaiya Beach	After breakfast, this will be our last day of coastal cycling as we follow the Gulf of Thailand riding sometimes through beachsides, small fishing villages, rubber plantations and coconut groves where trained monkeys clamber in the trees harvesting coconuts.
Day 10	Chaiya Beach – Ban Tha Kun	Today, we follow a rural road through palm forests and rubber plantations with views of Karst cliffs rising through the jungle. Our destination is Ratchaphra Dam, where this evening we watch the sun set over the lake and dine alfresco on a lovely little plateau, with magnificent views over the Khao Sok National Park.
Day 11	Ban Tha Kun – Koh Yao Noi Island	This morning, we take a boat trip, sailing off through the karst cliffs to the beautiful Koh Yao Noi Island. This evening we enjoy sundowners and a barbecue on the beach with stunning views of karst rocks jutting out of the sea.
Day 12	Koh Yao Noi Island – Phuket	Today, our island hop continues with a 1Hr boat trip to Phuket. On arrival we have a short ride across the island before we head down to Nai Yang Beach for a splash in the sea and sunset drinks.
Day 13	Depart Phuket	After breakfast, you will be transferred to the Airport for your onward flight home.

Itinerary

Day 1	Arrive Chiang Rai	Upon arrival in Chiang Rai, you will be met and transferred to your hotel. Rest of the day is at leisure until this evening's 18:00pm group briefing. Chiang Rai's highlights include the Golden Clock, which strikes at 19:00pm, the Hill Tribe Museum and Education Centre, several beautiful Wats and a Night Market.
Day 2	Chiang Rai – Chiang Saen	After breakfast, we head to Mae Sai, a bustling market, where you can buy an array of goods including cheap jewels (Rubies, Emerald and Jade) from Burma. We then cycle through the famous Golden Triangle, locally known as Sop Ruak, through rolling hills and past pineapple plantations, ancient Temples and ruins before stopping at the Buddhist Wat Phra That Chedi Luang for a quick visit.
Day 3	Chiang Saen – Chiang Khong	Today, we follow the Mekong River, through lush jungle, picturesque hill tribe villages characterised by simple bamboo huts on stilts. We arrive at Chiang Khong, early in the afternoon.
Day 4	Chiang Khong – Phu Chi Fa	This morning, we head towards Phu Chi Fa, the highest peak in Chiang Rai province. As we ascend the views are spectacular and the terrain rewarding. Phu Chi Fa is stunning and surprisingly chilly; the diversity of insect life, flora and fauna make it a unique area.
Day 5	Phu Chi Fa – Chiang Kham	For a truly exhilarating experience we start at 04:00am and trek on foot to the highest point of the mountain to watch the sunrise over the mist covered jungle with the Laos border and the Mekong beneath us. Later, we cycle downhill hugging the mountainside and follow the border passing the Phu Sang Waterfall.
Day 6	Chiang Kham	After breakfast, the rest of the day is free at leisure to relax in your beautiful surroundings. Chiang Kham is home to many Thai Lue or Tai people and there are several local Temples if you wish to explore the area including Wat Nantaram, Wat Phra Chao and Nang Din.
Day 7	Chiang Kham – Phu Langka	Today, we cycle a gentle uphill route from Yoan through a vast expanse of Rice Fields. There are many traditional Temples and Teak House Villages in the area that we will pass through. Around Phu Langka there is an abundance of wild flowers and you will also have the opportunity to learn about Yao culture.
Day 8	Phu Langka – Pua	Today, we rise early to catch the breathtaking sunrise. Often shrouded in early morning mists, the stunning landscape of Karst Rocks, Mountains and Valley's, emerge with a magical aura. We then head towards Pua a small, busy town set in a wide, fertile valley with beautiful views to the east, of Doi Phuka National Park.
Day 9	Pua – Bo Kluea	After breakfast, we depart through beautiful jungle greenery, beginning with a challenging steep climb over the mountain passing Doi Phuka National Park. We finish today in the tiny Htin Village of Bo Kluea in a scenic valley, close to the Lao border. The village is built around two natural saltwater wells.
Day 10	Bo Kluea	Enjoy a free day to relax or take the option to visit the Doi Phuka National Park, local Caves and Waterfalls or the nearby Nong Bua Village set amongst Rice Fields along the Nan River. There is also the three tiered Silaphet Waterfall and in Phu Fa, the Mrabri that grow Tea, Mulberries and make handicrafts from bark.
Day 11	Bo Kluea – Nan	Today, we travel to Nan, an autonomous region with few links to the outside world. This beautiful town has many well preserved Temples including Wat Phumin. Tonight, we gather for a farewell meal.
Day 12	Depart Nan	After breakfast, you will be transferred to Nan Airport for your onward flight.

OUR COMMITMENT TO YOU

Reservation Of Your Holiday:

When we receive your request for a booking for a particular holiday, either direct or through your travel agent, we allocate the holiday to you, subject to availability and issue a confirmation / invoice.

World Holidays Price Guarantee:

All prices in this brochure are based in AUD$ and were calculated in November-December 2023. We guarantee that whatever happens to the value of the A$ in 2024 we will endeavour to maintain the level of your holiday price to the best of our ability. Should costs related to supplier's charges change, it may be necessary for us to make a surcharge on the price of your holiday. If this means paying more than 10% on the initial tour price, you will be entitled to cancel your holiday within 7 days of notification, with a full refund of all monies paid, except for any amendment charges levied by us before the notification of change. However, we will absorb an amount equivalent to 2% of your holiday price before making an increase. Rail and Ferry Services will incur a 100% cancellation fee once booking is confirmed as per supplier's instructions.

If We Change Your Booking:

Should circumstances beyond our control dictate, we reserve the right to make amendments to your holiday and will inform you about these as soon as they arise. If the minimum number of persons required for each tour is not reached, we reserve the right to cancel the tour. Should it then be necessary to cancel your booking, we will offer an alternative from our brochure. If this option is not available or suitable to you, we will refund all monies paid by you. We cannot, however, accept responsibility for changes or cancellations due to 'force majeure', threat of war, political unrest, fire, adverse weather conditions, natural disasters or any other such circumstance beyond our control. In such instances we will refund all monies, less the reasonable expenses incurred by our organisations.

YOUR COMMITMENT TO US

Payment:

The deposit of AUD $200 for FIT bookings and 30% per person for all Escorted Tours must be held by your travel agent before your travel agent will make a booking. The deposit will only be refunded if the requested holiday reservation is unavailable. Payment by you of the deposit implies acceptance of the terms and conditions of this agreement. Your travel agent will hold the deposit until the booking is confirmed by World Holidays at which time the deposit will be passed over to World Holidays within seven (7) days. Money held by your travel agent from time of confirmation is not held on behalf of World Holidays. All monies received by World Holidays will be deposited as required by law and dispersed to our supplier's according to their conditions of payment. The balance of the purchase price is payable sixty (60) days prior to your holiday departure or before you depart Australia. If the balance remains unpaid after this date, we reserve the right to cancel your booking and to charge you a cancellation fee in accordance with the scale set out below. If you book within sixty - (60) days of your departure from Australia, the full amount as stated in our brochure must be forwarded to us immediately.

Booking Amendments:

All alterations that you wish to make to the confirmed booking arrangements will be sent to us in writing and signed by the person who made the initial booking. We will make every effort to satisfy your request. AUD $30.00 amendment charge will be charged to cover some of our expenses after documentation has been issued.

Cancellations:

Any cancellations will be in writing and signed by the person who made the initial reservation. In order for us to cover our expenses and losses, we will apply the following scale of cancellation fees:

Charges:

More than 60 days	Deposit Only
60 – 29 days	40% of package price
28 – 15 days	60% of package price
14 – 04 days	80% of package price
03 – Day of Departure	100% of package price

Service provider fees may also apply to the above cancellation percentages. Your travel insurance policy may cover the refunding of these charges if the reason for your cancellation falls within the terms of the insurance policy.

Liability:

Please note that your travel agent does not receive monies as an agent for World Holidays and we do not take responsibility for such monies until we receive the monies from your travel agent.

If You Have A Complaint:

All complaints should be reported to your hotel and / or local ground operator staff, who will do their best to settle the matter immediately. Any unresolved complaint must be registered with us within 30 days of your return from your holiday in Asia.

Airline Responsibility Clause:

This brochure is not issued on behalf of and does not commit any of the airlines whose services are used in the course of our tours.

Holiday Insurance:

World Holidays strongly recommends you take out a fully comprehensive travel insurance before your departure. Your travel agent will be happy to advise you in this regard.

Passport and Visas:

A valid passport and respective visas are required for your holiday in Asia. Your travel agent or World Holidays can help you obtain the necessary visas, but it is your responsibility to ensure that you have the necessary travel documentation prior to travel. We are not responsible for visas.

Responsibility:

By accepting this booking with World Holidays, you acknowledge that you have read and agreed to our booking conditions. You, also acknowledge that although all holidays contained in this brochure are packaged by World Holidays, we do not own, manage control or operate any aircrafts, hotels or coaches. All bookings made by World Holidays on your behalf, with the persons and the companies that provide all the transportation, accommodation and other services (supplier's) are made subject to the terms and conditions imposed by these supplier's in providing those services.

World Holidays cannot be held liable for any breach of this contract arising as a result of any act or omission by or on behalf of the supplier's or for any loss, injury or damage arising as a result of such acts or omissions. World Holidays cannot be held liable for any loss, injury or damage resulting from occurrences beyond its control including strikes, theft, delays or cancellations as well as changes in schedules. No refunds will be given for any unused portions of the tour. World Holidays reserves the right to provide travel documents at the holiday departure points in Asia.

Disclaimer:

All images and representations contained in this promotional material are indicative only and subject to change by the owner(s) of the property represented. World Holidays provides no warranty (express or implied) that the experience provided will mimic exactly that of the brochure illustration.

Booking Conditions:

Upon receipt by you of our confirmation / invoice, this brochure will form the basis of a binding contract between you and World Holidays and it is important that you read all parts of the terms and conditions on our website before booking your holiday. Everything on the website is subject to availability and might change without notice. The contract is governed by Queensland Law with any action under this contract being heard within the jurisdiction of Queensland Courts.
